Earth X is an alternate universe in which the Axis Powers won World War II.

History

1916: The First known divergence

from Earth One is a member of the alien race [the Na'kuhl^{\[W\]}](#) killing Pasha Antipov

1917: A pod containing the infant Kal-L lands in Tomania in 1917, where he is discovered by German workers and given the name Karl Kant.

1923: [Adenoid Hynkel^{\[W\]}](#) is contacted by [a group of time travellers from a universe where World War I never existed who intended to empower Germany against the Soviet Union and granted him future knowledge including limited nuclear weapons^{\[W\]}](#) and from one jewish man who attempted to kill him, a mobile phone. Hynkel went against his benefactors, which included using his future knowledge to adopt the young Karl Kent. His Beer Hall Pusch is successful.

1927: The [worker's uprisings in the Berlin Metropolis^{\[W\]}](#) took place of which Hynkel and a young Karl Kant were involved. In the Soviet Union, It would be [Nikolai Rubashov^{\[W\]}](#) who led the Soviet Union instead of [Josef Besstrashnyy^{\[W\]}](#). Japan also scaled back its offensive in China.

1933: [President Peter J. Varney^{\[W\]}](#) is suddenly assassinated. This leads to [Gilbert Dillenbeck^{\[W\]}](#) reluctantly going through with a plan which saw himself as Dictator to maintain order while outmaneuvering his co-conspirators. The Same year in Germany, Hynkel is appointed Chancellor(largely [due to the influence of the Timewyrm entity and guidance of the Time Lord the War Chief^{\[W\]}](#)), defeating the communists under Flora Hamburg.

1934: Development on Nuclear Weapons was underway and [the Formula for a Nuclear Bomb was created in Ixania^{\[W\]}](#) and successfully delivered to Germany, where [Dr. Josef Merkwurdgliebe^{\[W\]}](#) began work on completing it.

1936: Dr. Edith Keeler successfully lobbied against pursuing Nuclear Research and convinced Dillenbeck due to the country still not recovering from the Great Depression. This extends when [Willie Stark^{\[W\]}](#) (who was never assassinated in this universe) is elected in 1936 on a more isolationist stance. The Third Reich spent much of the 1930's sending agents to acquire powerful artifacts including [obtaining the Holy Grail^{\[W\]}](#), [Orichalcum^{\[W\]}](#) from Atlantis, [Dinosaur DNA^{\[W\]}](#) from [Maple White Land^{\[W\]}](#) and the [Necronomicon^{\[W\]}](#) from dark wizards Heinrich Kemmler and Gellert Grindelwald. These artifacts along with the aid of Klark Kant, now known as Overman, repelled [the Sarmak Invasion in Germany^{\[W\]}](#), while greatly devastating the other nations.

1939: Germany is more than prepared when it invades Osterlich, triggering the Second World War.

1940: The Nazis deliver a crushing blow to the British at Dunkirk and take France. America elects Aviator and Fascist sympathizer [Ted Scott^{\[W\]}](#) as President. A Successful Operation: Sea Lion led to Germany taking Britain, with [a final resistance occurring at Hadrian's Wall^{\[W\]}](#). The royal family escapes to exile in New Zealand, Canada and America, where the 15 year old [Queen Anne II^{\[W\]}](#) is crowned, while the London Resistance, operating from the Pub [the Shy Gazelle^{\[W\]}](#), blew up the body of [Otto Spotts^{\[W\]}](#) intended as a gift to the Soviet Union, and [a blow was dealt to the Nazi Atomic weapon program^{\[W\]}](#) and [killed the King Regent Edward VIII with a suicide bomb^{\[W\]}](#), leading his wife Wallis Simpson to become Queen. Germany responds with [V2 Rockets containing a virus known as the Slow Death which devastated the Isles^{\[W\]}](#). The Reich Vampires of the Millennium Program defeated the Vampire Alucard and Walter Donetz, heralding the defeat of the last of Britain's supernatural defenders. The town of [Wellington Wells^{\[W\]}](#) was able to successfully repel the Germans and remain independent, adopting an odd obsession with the drug Joy. [Rupert Catskill^{\[W\]}](#) led the resistance for sometime but was eventually captured and executed. His role in the Collaboration Government is taken by [Prime Minister Mark Normanby, who blames a Jewish conspiracy for the recent murder of Sir James Thirkie^{\[W\]}](#) and sets up the rule of the Fascist [Raven Society^{\[W\]}](#).

1941: Swedish Communists blew up a German train passing through, resulting in the country being occupied by May 12^[W]. Germany then turns its attention to the Soviet Union. Japan attacking Pearl Harbor brought the US into the war(though the attack was more dangerous due to Admiral Isoroku Takano having been transported to this world from Earth One and better guiding the attacks with his future knowledge^[W]). The Nazis were able to obtain a device known as the Difference Engine which depower most of the Justice Society of America[↗]. Erwin Rommel invades Quebec and is able to take Metropolis but faced fierce resistance^[W].

1942: The Race^[W] invade and are able to seize large parts of South America and Africa, they meet fierce resistance, such as a costly war against the Draka^[W]. The Nazis are also able to obtain a Vibranium^[W] Cylinder which they would use in turning back D-Day.

1943: The Nazis are able to use Blood Magic to summon and bind the Norse Pantheon into their service^[W], which leads to the tide being turned against the Allies.

1944: Vandal Savage, inspired by his recruitment into a war between two groups of time travellers twice, once under his Alexander the Great Identity and once under his Dschinghis Khan identity^[W], begins sending messages to his past self using the time travelling Nazi Stefan Krieger[↗] to deliver a laptop to his past self which included schematics to future technology such as war wheels along with information. Savage removes Hynkel from power and froze him, thanks to Savage's future sight, the D-Day Landings failed[↗] largely due to the use of Me-262 jet fighters[↗], with the Allied forces being obliterated[↗]. Japan also drops chlorine gas over San Fransokyo. Germany attempted to weaken British resistance by under Prime Minister^[W] Roderick Spode^[W], introducing the process of "Germanisation" which including destroying St.Paul's Cathedral^[W] while at home entire villages were left with only women^[W].

1945: The Soviet Union is greatly crushed when Germany wins the battle of Rubashovgrad. The Russian Hero Red Star^[W] is killed in battle with Overman, Albrecht Krieger^[W] and several Ubers^[W]. This forces the Red army to abandon Moscow. Premier Rubashov mysteriously disappears, leaving the Soviets without a leader. Josef Besstrashnyy attempts to take over, causing a Russian Civil War. Amidst this crisis, Dieter Vogel^[W]'s Trioxin Virus was deployed and led to the Soviet Union splintering into multiple warlord factions and despite a successful push back led by the mysterious "Phantom", the Third Reich considered the true Russia to be dead.

1946: The Nazis gained further technology when they stumbled upon a Da'at Yichud repository and begin to reverse engineer the technology present. An advance leads to Arendelle surrendering to the Reich, allowing Grindelwald to convert the Wizard Academy Durmstrang into a ground to train future fanatical Nazi Wizards^[W]. An attack on Death's Head compound leads by BJ Blazkowicz fails to kill Wilhelm Strasse and Blazkowicz was left in a coma^[W].

1947: Germany launches an amphibious invasion of Canada. The US, who had replaced Ted Scott with Republican Grant Matthews^[W], had a technology boost when a UFO Crashed in Roswell. Germany also invaded India, and despite a warning from Yakov Liebermann^[W], captured and executed Sohan Bhai. Japan also began implementing the Battle Royale program, which continued well into 1997^[W].

1948: China is occupied by Japan. Several scientists connected to the Gotham Project were murdered, further damaging their atomic efforts. Dr. Josef Merkwurdgliebe's successfully completed the nuclear bomb soon after. A plane is launched commanded by the Red Skull towards Metropolis. Captain Americ was able to stop the plane from reaching America and went missing after falling into the Atlantic Ocean^[W]. While delayed, a second strike by the Phoenix aircraft, which was sent back in time^[W] with the help of Damien Darhk and Eobard Thawne^[W], succeeded. The first Atomic Bomb is used to destroy Metropolis on December 21st. Japan also occupied the west coast due to superior Mechas^[W]. President Grant Matthews formally surrendered to the German Reich. Matthews had already lost the 1948 election and Jefferson Smith^[W] took over. The surrender was overseen by Ernst Rommel and General George S. Patton^[W], who along with other Generals such as Harrison Howell and David Kamphaufe, went onto join a resistance along with Henry Jones Jr^[W], Archie Hall, and Thomas Kegan among others, though Howell would be killed and made a Martyr in trials while retired boxer Sean Thornton^[W] mysteriously disappeared fighting in the resistance. Patton would lose to Rommel in the Second Battle of Gettysburg and flee to Australia where he would continue to lead the resistance largely from Sarkhan and other Asian countries^[W]. Vice President Jefferson Smith organized a secret military program that went into hiding^[W], giving most of the research to Patton. Uncle Sam gathered a team of Heroes called the Freedom Fighters to resist the Nazis^[W]. Canada and the United States were divided into three parts: the Pacific States, Neutral Zone, and the Amerikan Reich. Vandal Savage unfreezed Hynkel, who was furious but Savage had obtained the loyalty of most of the high command and allowed Hynkel to appear as a figurehead. Hynkel by this point had largely gone insane and attempted to crown himself Emperor of the World and marry a Japanese Princess^[W] in order to avoid a potential war between Germany and Japan in 1948^[W]. Savage himself was given control of the American Reich. Movements led by Mallory Gabus also continued to exist in Metropolis as did illegal exhibits displaying works by Jewish people killed by the Nazis such as Jacob Banrhardt, Sigmund Freud and Anne Frank were still held despite attempts to stop them^[W].

1949: the German Reich demolished Mount Rushmore, despite some plans to put Hynkel's face on it. Resistance continued in London until the last of the Freedom Fighters were wiped out by the Colossal robot the London Monitor.

1950: Prime Minister Lord Monomark^[W] wins a fraudulent election collaborating with the Nazis, 1951: German astronaut Hans Armstark and his co-pilot Emmerich Otto become the first men to land on the Moon without Cavorite. The Chimera^[W] invade The German Reich from the Soviet wastelands, leading to a war in which the German Reich is eventually victorious. This spurred The Axis into building weapons to invade other planets, leading them into conflict with the Treens on Venus and the Barsoomians^[W] and Ice Warriors on Mars. Genetic engineering also became more advanced but was used in inhumane ways such as creating Leopard Women used in hunting by Count Hans von HackelInberg^[W]. British Forces in Africa successfully overthrow governor-general of the Kongo Walter Hochburg^[W].

1953: The Great Wall of China is reinforced by German Engineers. Tension between Hynkel and Kemmler led him to be granted his own state of Burgundy. The Axis remove President Smith as well as the Vice President, leading to the Nazi-Alligned Speaker of the House James Edward Stevenson until he is killed by the resistance movement in 1953^[W]. He was replaced by Orrin Knox, due to his isolationism.

1956: Orrin Knox loses to Merkin Muffley. [The Long Walk^{\[W\]}](#) is introduced as an event by the Reich. A Nazi Lunar Base was established largely to mine the intelligence reducing element [Lunarium^{\[W\]}](#).

1957: The nazis build the Gibraltar Bridge, connecting Europe and Africa. Stefan Krieger falls in love with a woman in the future who would be dead under the Nazi rule. This leads him to have a change of heart and intentionally give the German Reich bad info to cause their downfall. For this he was murdered by Vandal Savage, but also cost Savage his access to the future, which he believed he no longer needed. As a result, he was seemingly killed by the resistance leader Bruce Wayne.

1960: The office of the President is dissolved after the Anti-Nazi but also Anti-Semitic Thomas Kegan won the election and then went into hiding. The first sign of things turning against the Reich begin. [BJ Blazkiewicz escapes from imprisonment and joins the resistance, which succeeding in destroying the Dinosaur DNA Samples used in D-Day and with the Nazis having destroyed Maple White Land, recreating the creatures becomes nearly impossible to them. They also destroyed the Gibraltar Bridge, the London Monitor and the Nazi Lunar Base^{\[W\]}](#).

1961: Dr. Josef Merkwurdgliebe senses the fall of the Reich approaching and joins Patton's resistance.

1962 proved a significant year for the Axis Powers. For one thing, after the destruction of Odin's Spear by an allied team which included Loki([who introduced a Zombie Virus as a weapon[↗]](#) against the other Aesir), [the Pantheons of the various religions including the Japanese Shinto and those of African and Middle Eastern pantheons\(the latter of which had their oil fields burned\), united and destroyed the Norse Pantheon after their threatened to devastate the Earth with global warming^{\[W\]} through the use of a summoned entity known as an Infovore that nearly destroyed the Earth in the form of a Frost Giant^{\[W\]}, triggering an isolated version of Ragnarok^{\[W\]}](#). After this all nations agreed to cease human sacrifices. Germany implemented [the Genosha Plan^{\[W\]}](#) of exiling all Jewish people to Genosha with the intent of destroying it, which failed thanks to Magneto taking over and thwarting the German assault.

1962: Tension had been increasing with many in the German Reich planning to attack Japan due to its lack of nukes. Hynkel also survived multiple attempts on his life. Both sides also began to experiment with other worlds(something possibly spiritually through I-Ching^[W] and special hallucinogens employed by the Hopi people^[↗] but also through certain areas including a hospital in the Scottish Highlands^[W]), motivated by the appearance of films depicting other worlds as well as the speculative fiction novel The Grasshopper Lies Heavy^[W]. This led them to discover alternate universes including Earth One, a world where the Black Death killed 99% of Europe^[W], one where the Soviet Union conquered Europe^[W], and one where Hynkel was never born but another figure named Rudolf Gloder would have caused the Death of in World War I rose in his place^[W]. The Reich formed alliances with several of its alternate universe equivalents such as the Bremen Empire^[W] and the Blocko-made Hydra Empire^[W]. After the Earth One Hero Peacemaker killed his counterpart and his father^[W], The Reich launched a Superhuman invasion of Earth One led by the Reichsman that was fought by Portal Corps^[↗], which resulted in the deaths of Overgirl and Oliver Queen^[W]. The Gerechtigkeitsliga^[↗] was formed in response but Overman betrayed the group, resulting in the Freedom Fighters killing the entire team. The Reich also fought a war with an alternate universe in which the Roman Empire never fell. By this time, Hynkel had appointed Martin Heussman as his intended successor(largely due to his involvement in the Atlantropa Project^[↗]), which causes a schism among the other high ranking members such as Garbitsch, Herring and Kemmler. The Reich was otherwise occupied with a genocide of the African Population(which was largely opposed by Wakanda^[W]).

1963: A Race Colonization fleet was destroyed in orbit, prompting an increase in tensions between all nations but largely between Germany and the Reich. Tensions eased somewhat when using stolen footage from Earth One, Japan fools Germany into believing they had the bomb. Adenoid Hynkel(after spending his final years trying to make a film where he killed several rehearsing actors during the production including Johnny Cyclops^[W]) finally dies in October (killed by BJ Blazcowicz, Danger 5^[↗], Reed Richards who attempted to take control himself with the Infinity Gauntlet, and the Superhuman Superior^[W]), triggering the German Civil War among different factions including Kemmler, Heussman, Herring, Garbitsch, and Strasse. Heussman is killed by his own son Joe Blake. Garbitsch and Herring are also defeated with Garbitsch falling into insanity after his daughter Hilda fled to Kemmler's Burgundy^[↗]. While Kemmler carries out "Jar Null" or Year Zero by destroying the Statue of Freedom and the Liberty Bell, he is nearly assassinated. Wilhelm Strasse. Strasse helped kill Kemmler with an army of wizards with the help of John Smith and the enigmatic Zytek. Strasse learned about Zytek's plan to nuke the entire world and start over^[W]. Strasse overthrew him, but would not outlive Zytek for very long as BJ Blazcowicz launched an attack on the Death's Head Compound and this time succeeded in killing Wilhelm Strasse. Blazcowicz also blew up Area 52 in Roswell with a nuke and killed Obergruppenführer Irene Engel in a live broadcast, triggering the second American Revolution^[W], which succeeded in eventually reuniting the country. Japan was facing economic trouble in China and willingly pulled out while the resistance succeeded in killing Oppgruppenführer John Smith.

1964: The Superhuman Captain Axis was killed by Earth One's Hulk who was transported there and joined in liberating the US^[W]. Captain America was found and thawed out, helping to defeat the Red Skull with the assistance of a rebellion including Bucky Barnes, Nick Fury and his Howling Commandos, Peter Parker, Ben Grimm, Johnny Storm, Sue Storm, Reed Richards, Hank Pym, Janet van Dyne, Tony Stark, Donald Blake, Bruce Banner, Matt Murdock, Luke Cage, Frank Castle, and Stephen Strange^[W] which succeeded though Red Skull was killed by his heir Victor Von Doom. Resistance leader Thomas Kegan^[W] was made President. Kegan was actually winning to negotiate peace with Germany, caring little of the Jewish population. In the aftermath of the civil war when Ernest Stravo Blofeld^[W] took over, there were talks of an alliance but these ended in 1964, when in contradiction to the claim that the ethnic cleansing of Jewish people had ended, a reporter exposed the continued deaths^[W]. Thomas Kegan would lose that year's election to George S. Patton, who introduced a program of stripping voting rights from the members of the American Nazi Party and giving them to African-Americans that had been enslaved^[W]. Blofeld was overthrown and Hynkel's son August Hynkel, became Fuhrer.

1970: August Hynkel is forced to flee when from an invasion by a Roman Empire of an alternate universe. While it was widely believed most of the Jewish population had perished by the time the crimes were exposed, there were fortunately found to be holdouts in Genosha led by Erik Lensherr^[W] and the ruins of Angkor Wat^[W] as well as several who successfully hid. Several actors were hired to play Jewish people for tourist attractions and began to adopted the practice themselves.

1971: Japan is occupied by the organization Shocker^[W].

1972: The League of Dictators, a faction formed from the ashes of German Civil War, captures and [intended to execute what they believed to be the last Jew^{\[W\]}](#) at the 1972 Olympics, but a lunar storm caused destruction at the event with Russia in paranoia launching a nuke that destroyed Vice City while another nuke hit Grestin. In the US 1972 elections, [Ferris F.Fremont^{\[W\]}](#) won the the election but his ties to Hydra were exposed. His Running mate, Timothy F.Kegan, son of Thomas Kegan(Post-US Reformation, both US political parties were combined into one as the Democratic-Republicans), went onto become President. Under his term, Japan requested the island of Alola be ceded to them, causing some tension. Kegan also funded America's own research into alternate universes, including the universe where World War II never happened, and those previously explored by the German Reich for ways to counter the advantages of the Axis powers. Japan officially joined the Allies, increasing the tension of the Cold War. While Germany had largely De-Nazified, Germany attempted to save face by invading Japan, which was successfully occupied for a time, though the [Kerberos Riot^{\[W\]}](#) was put down.

1973: In Japan, Shocker [defeats the Kamen Riders via time travel^{\[W\]}](#).

1978: The Stalemate between America and Germany finally ended when the Americans were discovered to have backed an uprising in Britain by implanting a code word in a broadcast of the drama [An Englishman's Castle^{\[W\]}](#). This led an uprising in Britain.

1980: In Britain, turncoats [George Grant^{\[W\]}](#) and [Moira MacTaggart's Lightning Force^{\[W\]}](#) are killed. The Reich employs brainwashing to create a false reality by Jim Jaspers in which people practiced [the Religion of Hynkelism, worshipping Hynkel as an Aryan God and enslaving women^{\[W\]}](#) while stripping them of all rights(the achievements of women such as [Ilsa Schlimm^{\[W\]}](#) and Renate Ritcher having been erased from history) [until a rebellion broke out in what they believed to be 2659 upon a photo of the true Hynkel alongside a woman being publicly revealed^{\[W\]}](#). Britain is liberated, the [Iron Duchess^{\[W\]}](#) [Joan Carpenter^{\[W\]}](#) becomes Prime Minister. [France is liberated while German plans to establish a Fourth Reich were thwarted by the two daughters of Blazkowicz^{\[W\]}](#). The 1980 US Presidential Election are won by [Andy Taylor^{\[W\]}](#), who remained President throughout the 1980's.

1983: The [Visitors^{\[W\]}](#) invade Earth but are defeated.

1986: The [Fithp^{\[W\]}](#) are defeated.

1988: Gary Hart becomes US President.

1990: [Francis Urquhart^{\[W\]}](#) becomes Premier of Britain, succeeding Joan Carpenter.

1992: Al Noah becomes President and will serve 2 terms.

1995: [The Eastern Soviet Union^{\[W\]}](#) is formed

1998: An invasion from the Yeerks is defeated.

2002: Members within the declining Reich did attempt to use the [Necronomicon^{\[W\]}](#) to summon the Infovore, resulting in most of the planet being devastated. The Shocker organization also attempted another conquest of Earth using superhuman such as [the Mighty Atom^{\[W\]}](#).

2010: [Following the death of Fuhrer Kurt Waldheim, The Reich experienced a collapse akin to the Soviet Union on Earth One^{\[W\]}](#), while the Soviet Remnants were now led by the charismatic Kane. In order save itself, Germany attacks and was able to reconquer Britain briefly due to employing superhuman.

2031: The Reich had recovered and was still considered a world power.

2080s: [The Reich had largely relaxed its authoritarian regime and was able to make fairly peaceful contact with other Universes^{\[W\]}](#). A Nuclear war would devastate the world and lead to the rise of [Mutants^{\[W\]}](#).
